

There is an equal time provision that needs to be imposed upon Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

The editorial content of the so-called news story brings into play a requirement to offer equal time to all parties with other viewpoints.

The Commission should order Sinclair to provide this airtime to other viewpoints.

If Sinclair refuses such an order their license should be revoked.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

The FCC, in heeding to corporate political pressure is doing the public a grave disservice. It is time to take back the airwaves and return things to the way they used to be.
